District of Coldstream Office Remains Closed

The District of Coldstream offices will remain closed to the public until the end of April 2020. On March 18, 2020 the District of Coldstream closed its municipal offices to the public. This necessary action was taken to help prevent the spread of the COVID-19 virus.

The District remains “Remotely Open for Business” and staff is available by phone or email. Any essential services that require meeting with staff will be done by appointment only.

The District of Coldstream continues to monitor the public health updates related to COVID-19 which has been classified as a pandemic by the World Health Organization. COVID-19 is a serious health threat and the situation is evolving daily. The risk to Canadians is considered high at this time. There is an increased risk of more severe outcomes for Canadians aged 65 and over, with compromised immune systems or with underlying medical conditions.
